- The Issuer is subject to a number of strict and extensive regulatory rules and requirements.
- RBI is exposed to risks due to its interconnectedness concerning the Institutional Protection Scheme.
- Potential losses due to settlement risks arise from the time-lag between the dates of the exchange of cash, securities, or assets respectively.
- Outbreaks of diseases can have severe impacts on banking operations, the social and economic environment, and financial market developments.

1.3 KEY INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

1.3.1 What are the main features of the securities?

The Notes will be issued in bearer form and are governed by the laws of Germany. Form and the custody of the Notes will be governed by the laws of Austria. The Notes are issued in US-dollar, in the aggregate principal amount of up to USD 50,000,000 divided into Notes in a denomination of USD 2,000. The ISIN of the Notes is AT000B015086. The Notes have not been rated.

Status of the Notes

Ordinary Senior Notes: The obligations under the Notes constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer ranking in the event of normal insolvency proceedings (bankruptcy proceedings) or liquidation of the Issuer pari passu among themselves and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer except for any instruments or obligations preferred or subordinated by law.

Interest Rate

The Notes shall bear interest annually in arrear based on their principal amount during the Interest Periods from (and including) 11 December 2020 (the "Interest Commencement Date") to (but excluding) the last Coupon Date.

The rate of interest is 0.60 per cent per annum.

Indication of yield / Unified yield is 0.60 per cent. per annum.

Term of the Instruments

Unless previously redeemed in whole or in part or purchased and cancelled, the Notes shall be redeemed at their Final Redemption Rate of 100 per cent of its principal amount on 11 December 2023 (the "Maturity Date").

Early Redemption

Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation.

The Notes can be redeemed at the option of the Issuer (in whole but not in part) if as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Austria or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereto or therein affecting taxation or the obligation to pay duties of any kind, or any change in, or amendment to, an official interpretation or application of such laws or regulations, which amendment or change is effective on or after the date on which the last tranche of this series of Notes was issued, the Issuer is required to pay additional amounts on the Notes. The Early Redemption Rate equals the Final Redemption Rate.

Limitations of rights

The presentation period provided in § 801 subparagraph 1 of the German Civil Code in relation to the Notes is (i) unlimited in respect of principal and (ii) unlimited in respect of interest.

1.3.2 Where will the securities be traded?

The Notes will be admitted to trading on the Official Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange on or around 11 December 2020.

1.3.3 What are the key risks that are specific to the securities?

- Holders of the Ordinary Senior Notes are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.
- In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, deposits have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the Ordinary Senior Notes.
- Holders of the Ordinary Senior Notes are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may issue further debt instruments or incur further liabilities.
- Regardless of whether the Notes are listed or not, there can be no assurance that any liquid secondary market for the Notes will develop. In an illiquid market, an investor might not be able to sell its Notes at any time at fair market prices.
- A Holder of Notes is exposed to the risk of an unfavourable development of market prices of its Notes which materialises if the Holder sells the Notes prior to the final maturity of such Notes. Holders of Fixed Rate Notes are particularly exposed to the risk that the price of such Notes falls as a result of changes in the Market Interest Rate levels.
- In respect of any Notes issued with a specific use of proceeds, such as a Green Bond or Social Bond, there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor and any failure to apply such use of proceeds as originally envisaged does not constitute an event of default or give rise to any claim against the Issuer.
- A Holder of Notes denominated in a foreign currency is exposed to the risk of changes in currency exchange rates which may affect the yield of such Notes.
- The Notes are not covered by any (statutory or voluntary) deposit guarantee scheme.
